Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

SCANDAL.

A Story for Suspicious People.

A lady purchased a home in a beautiful village, about forty miles from a well known city. She longed for fresh air and quiet scenes, and doubtless she would have found all the happiness which she sought in this pleasant retreat, had not the place been haunted by that terrible spectre—Scandal.

"Have you seen the new arrival?"—asked Mrs. Thomas, of her neighbor, Mrs. Lawrence, about a week after the stranger took possession of Maple Cottage, as the little place she had purchased was called.

A curl of the lip and a shrug of the shoulders was all the reply made by Mrs. Lawrence; but in the gestures Mrs. Thomas saw, or supposed she saw, a sufficient reason for shunning the acquaintance of the stranger.

Had Mrs. Lawrence, who was a great stickler for aristocratic society, answered the question in words; had she expressed her real opinion of her new neighbor in tangible form, no very great results would have occurred, for she would have said "Yes, I have seen her; she had on a cheap delaine dress, and I hear she does her own washing,"—no very serious charges, but according to Mrs. Lawrence's ideas of "good society," quite sufficient to deprive her of all claim to the little of "lady"—hence her curled lip and shrug of disgust.

Mrs. Thomas, who was very jealous and suspicious, translated this sign of language in her own way. Being extremely sensitive as to what Mrs. Grundy should say, she was always on the watch, lest accidentally, she should be seen speaking to persons of low character; therefore she caught at this straw, and turned it over in her mind until she made out a very serious case for the stranger.

"I have no doubt," she said to her husband at night, "that she has a bad reputation in the city. She has come here dressed in deep mourning, but who knows whether she ever had a husband? And if she had, her wearing black is no sign he's dread, in my opinion, and Mrs. Thomas drew her mouth into a most sanctimonious expression—a look which almost always indicates the pharisaical, "I am better than thou!"

The next day quite a crowd had gathered in the store of Mr. Thomas, waiting for the arrival of the daily mail, which was due about this hour. The stranger came in to make some trifling purchases and was started at by the people, as strangers always are.

After she left the store, some remarks were made concerning her lady-like appearance. Mr. Thomas immediately rejoined, "Yes, she appears enough like a lady, but my wife thinks her reputation none the best."

Customers coming in, nothing more was said at that time, but the fire of scandal was kindled—the story spread rapidly, each one telling it in his own way, until there was not a family in the place but heard and believed the lying rumor.

Weeks passed on, and the inmate of Maple Cottage felt that for some reason she was looked upon with much suspicion and dislike. There was no hostility, nothing said or done, for which she could demand an explanation. She tried to remember some act or word which could have given offence; but in vain did she call to mind every word she had ever spoken to the villagers—she could remember nothing in her conduct to warrant such neglect, and she could only suffer in silence.

Every day seemed to increase the avoidance of her neighbors; and she seeing this, ceased making overtures toward an acquaintance with them, sending to the city for her household supplies, and never came in contact with any of them, save at church; and even here she most generally found a whole seat at her disposal.

At last the storm which had so long darkened the village horizon, seemed about to burst over her head. There were low threats of driving her out from the place, and the mob spirit seemed to be gathering strength.

About this time, some three months after the stranger had came to Maple Cottage, a very handsome traveling carriage, drawn by a span of noble grays, stopped in front of her dwelling, and a fine looking man, apparently about fifty years of age, with his wife and two children, was seen to alight and enter the house. All that day and through the evening, there was heard the sound of happy voices, mingled with the rippling laughter of joyous hearts.

The next day was Sunday, but this time the widow did not sit alone.—Strange looks, and low murmured words ran through the congregation, and the minister seemed to share the surprise of his audience, and looked and preached as though under painful embarrassment. He recognized in the stranger, a minister, whose reputation was world-wide—no other than the rich and the distinguished President of ——College, from which he was a graduate.

Professor C. remembered his former pupil, but it must be confessed he was both surprised and disappointed. He had given the young man credit for individual talent, but this sermon was a repetition of poor platitudes, and a truckling to public opinion, which showed a weak and little mind.

After service, the President stopped a moment until the preacher came forward, and when the greetings were over he said, kindly: "My sister wrote me that Richard Forbes was preaching here, but I did not connect the name with the memory of my former pupil."

"Your sister!" said the embarrassed young man. "I was not aware that I had ever had the honor of preaching before such a hearer. You do not mean to say that the woman with whom you entered is your sister?"

"And why not?" It is now Prof. C's. turn to look surprised.

Sure enough, why not? What did he know against the woman of whom all had been "speaking evil" for the last three months.—He had taken these cruel surmises for granted, and had been so far influenced by the scandal that he had failed to call upon the stranger.—A sense of the impropriety and guilt of his conduct rushed across his mind—suppose the woman was really the disgraced and guilty being that public opinion—the public opinion of the village—claimed, was it not his duty to save sinners? Christ came, "not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance!" How had he fiulfilled his mission? And yet he stood in his pulpit and claimed to be a follower of the meek and lowly Savior.

"There is something about this matter that I cannot understand," said Prof. C., as he scanned the changing countenance of the young preacher. "You do not mean to say that my sister has been a resident of your place and a listener to your preaching for three months, without your calling upon her? The duties of a preacher are surely better defined—"

"But I did not dare!"—and here the poor man stammered and stopped; for he could not excuse himself, without exposing the gossip of the congregation.

"Did not dare to call on my sister, the widow of General Finch?"—and the tinge of contempt mingled with the look of surprise and indignation with which he contemplated the abashed and crest fallen young preacher.

After reaching his sister's residence, he questioned her in regard to the matter; but here he was again baffled. She could only tell him that, since her residence in the place, she had been "let alone," in the full acceptance of the term. Determined to understand the wherefore of such a proceeding, he again demanded an explanation of the minister, who was finally compelled to admit that he had supposed, from the gossip of his church members, that the woman was a very outcast from society, and that there had been talk of driving her from the place.

"She will not care to remain," said the professor; "but before she goes, I shall sift this matter thoroughly; and so he did, gathering up, link by link, the whole chain of scandal until he came to Mrs. Lawrence.—But this the latter utterly denied, and Mrs. Thomas was at last obliged to confess that Mrs. Lawrence had merely shrugged her shoulders and curled her lip, when asked her opinion of her new neighbor.

"Ah, indeed!" was Mrs. Lawrence's rejoinder. "I remember of thinking she could not be much of a lady, as she wore a faded delaine and did her own washing!"

And there the mattter rested. Mrs. Lawrence, with a look and a shrug of the shoulders, and Mrs. Thomas by jealous surmises, had caused sorrow and pain to an innocent person—they had, in fact, stolen the good name of one who had never injured them; and but for the timely appearance of her brother, the consequences might have still been more serious.

The professor preached the following Sunday, and at the conclusion of the discourse he repeated the tale of wrong, adding, "Had this woman really been poor and friendless, as supposed, what would the end have been? Deprived of her good name and, in consequence, of all means of earning a livelihood, she would doubtless have been discouraged and despondent, and sunk down to the grave a victim of the scandal of those falsely calling themselves Christians; and you in the sight of God, would not only have been classed among liars, but murderers."

A GRATEFUL FATHER.—The little son of a Brooklyn clothing dealer fell into the East River, a few days since, and was rescued from a watery grave by a working man who jumped into the river at the risk of his life, and by great exertions brought the lad to shore. The father, as a grateful recompense to the preserver of his child generously offered to "iron out his wet clothes if he would bring them around to the store.

TOUCHING REMINISCENCE.

THE NIGHT FUNERAL OF A SLAVE

Traveling recently on business, in the interior of Georgia, I reached, just at sunset, the mansion of the proprietor, through whose estate for the last half hour of my journey, I had pursued my way. My tired companion pricked his ears, and with a low whiney indicated his pleasure as I turned up the broad avenue leading to the house. Calling to a black boy in view, I bade him inquire of his owner if I could be accommodated with lodgings for the night.

My request brought the proprietor himself to the door, from thence, after a scrutinizing glance at my own person and equipments, he inquired my name, business, and destination. I promptly responded to his questions, and he invited me to alight and enter the house, in the true spirit of Southern hospitality.

He was apparently thirty years of age, and evidently a man of education and refinement. I soon observed an air of gloomy abstraction about him; he said but little, and even that little seemed the result of an effort to obviate the seeming want of civility to a stranger. At supper the mistress of the mansion appeared, and did the honors of the table, in her particular department. She was exceedingly lady-like and beautiful, only as Southern women are, that is beyond comparison with those of any other portion of this republic I have ever seen. She retired immediately after supper, and a servant handing some splendid Habannas on a small silver tray, we had just seated ourselves comfortably before the enormous fire of oak wood, when a servant appeared at the end door near my host, hat in hand, and uttered in subdued but distinct tones, the to me, startling words.

"Master, de coffin hab come."

"Very well," was the only reply, and the servant disappeared.

My host remarked my gaze of inquisitive wonder and replied to it—

"I have been very sad," said he, "to-day. I have had a greater misfortune than I have experienced since my father's death. I lost this morning the truest and most reliable friend I had in the world—one whom I had been accustomed to honor and respect since my earliest recollection. He was the playmate of my father's youth, and the mentor of mine; a faithful servant, an honest man, and a sincere christian. I stood by his bed side to-day, and, with his hands clasped in mine, I heard the last words he uttered. They were, 'Master meet me in heaven.'"

His voice faltered a moment, and he continued, after a pause, with increased excitement—

"His loss is a melancholly one to me. If I left my home, I said to him, 'John, see that all things are taken care of,' and I knew that my wife and child, property and all were as safe as though they were garded by a hundred soldiers. I never spoke a harsh word to him in all my life, for he never deserved it. I have a hundred others, many of them faithful and true, but his loss is irreparable."

I came from a section of the Union where slavery does not exist, and I brought with me all the prejudices which so generally prevail in the Northern States in regard to this "institution." I had already seen much to soften these, but the observation of years would have failed to give me so clear an insight into the relation between master and servant as this simple incident. It was not the haughty planter, the lordly tyrant, talking of his dead slave as of his dead horse; but the kind-hearted gentleman lamenting the loss and eulogizing the virtues of his good old friend.

After an interval of silence my host resumed—

"There are many of the old man's relations and friends who would wish to attend the funeral. To afford them an opportunity, several plantations have been notified that he will be buried to-night. Some, I presume, have already arrived; and desiring to see that all things are properly prepared for his interment, I trust you will excuse my absence for a few moments."

"Most certainly, sir, but," I added "if there is no impropriety, I would be pleased to accompany you."

"There is none," he replied, and I followed him to a long row of cabins situated at a distance of some three hundred yards from the mansion. The house was crowded with negroes, who all arose on our entrance, and many of them exchanged greetings with mine host in terms that convinced me that they felt that he was an object of sympathy from them! The corpse was deposited in the coffin, attired in a shroud of the finest cotton materials, and the coffin itself painted black.

The master stopped at its head, an laying his hand upon the cold brow of his faithful bondsman, gazed long and intently upon features with which he had been so long familiar, and which he now looked upon for the last time; raising his eyes at length, and glancing at the serious countenances now bent upon his, he said solemnly and with much feeling:

"He was a faithful servant and a true christain; if you follow his example, and live as he lived, none of you need fear when the time comes for you to lie hear."

A patriarch, with the snow of eighty winters on his head answered—

"Master, it is true, and we will try to live like him."

There was a murmur of general assent, and after giving some instructions relative to the burial, we returned to the dwelling.

About nine o'clock a servant appeared with the notice that they were ready to move, and to know if further instructions were necessary. My host remarked to me that by stepping into the piazza, I would probably witness, to me, a novle scene. The procession had moved, and its route led within a few yards of the mansion. There were at least one hundred and fifty negroes, arranged four deep, and following a wagon in which was placed the coffin. Down the entire length of the line at intervals of a few feet on each side, were carried torches of resinous pine, here called lightwood. About the centre was stationed the black preacher, a man of gigantic frame and stentorian lungs, who gave out, from memory, the words of a hymn suitable for the occasion. The Southern negroes are proverbial for the melody and compass of their voices, and I thought that, hymn, mellowed by distance, the most solemn and yet the sweetest music that had ever fallen upon my ear. The stillness of the night and the strength of their voices enabled me to distinguish the air at the distance of half a mile.

It was to me a strange and solemn scene, and no incident of my life has impressed me with more powerful emotions than the night funeral of the poor negro. For this reason I have hastily and most imperfectly sketched its leading features. Previous to my retiring to my room, I saw in the hands of a daughter of the lady at whose house I stopped for the night a number of the Journal, and it occurred to me to send this to your paper perfectly indifferent whether it be published or not. I am but a brief sojourner here. I hail from a colder clime, where it is our proud boast that all men are free and equal. I shall return to my Northern home deeply impressed with the belief, that, dispensing with the name of freedom, the negroes of the South are the happiest and most contented people on the face of the earth.

THE TRADES OF ANIMALS.

The following observations, which we copy verbatim from an "Old Curiosity Shop," have reference to animals, and exhibit at lest their apparent knowledge of the sciences; also their professions, occupations, and enjoyments: Bees are geometricians; their cells are so constructed as, with the largest quantity of material, to have the largest sized spaces and the least possible loss of interstice. So, also is the ant-lion; his tunnel shaped trap is exactly correct in its conformation, as if it had been made by skillful artists of our species, with the aid of best instruments. The mole is a metrologist. The bird called the nine-killer is an arithmetician; so also is the crow, the wild turkey and some other birds. The torpedo, the ray, and the electric ell are electricians. The nautilus is a navigator; he raises and lowers his sail, casts and weighs his anchor and performs other nautical evolutions. Whole tribes of birds are musicians. The beaver is an architect, builder and and woodcutter; he cuts down trees and erects houses and dams. The marmot is a civil engineer; he not only builds houses but constructs acqueducts and drains to keep them dry. The white-ants maintain a regular army of soldiers. The East India ants are horticulturalists; they make mushrooms, upon which they feed their young. Wasps are paper manufactures. Caterpillars are silk spinners. The bird ploceus textor is a weaver; he weaves a web to make his nest. The prima is a tailor; he sews leaves together to make his nest. The squirrel is a ferryman; with a chip or a piece of bark for a boat, and his tail for a sail, he crosses a stream. Dogs, wolves, jackals, and many others are hunters. The black bear and heron are fishermen. The ants are regular day-laborers. The monkey is a rope dancer. The association of beavers presents us with a model republicanism. The bees live under a monarchy. The Indian antelopes furnish an example of patriarchal government. Elephants exhibit an aristocracy of elders. Wild horses are said to select their leader. Sheep, in a wild state, are under the control of a military chieftain.—Once a Week.

THE CENTRAL HEART OF THE EARTH.—As to the silver mines in that State, a Nevada paper says: "The increase in the heat of our mines is now beginning to give many of our mining companies more trouble, and is proving a great obstacle to mining operations in those levels lying below a depth of 1,000 feet, than any veins or 'pocket' deposits of water yet encountered. A number of the leading companies on the Comstock are now engaged in putting in engines, to be used expressly for driving fans for furnishing air to the lower levels, forcing it through large tubes of galvanized iron. With this great increase of heat in our mines comes a great decrease of water; in fact, in our deepest mine—the Bullion, which has attained the depth of 1,200 feet—not a drop of water is to be seen; it is as dry as a lime-kiln and as hot as an oven. In the lower workings of the Chollar-Potosi mine, which are a perpendicular depth of 1,100 feet below the surface, the thermometer now stands at 100 degrees—a frightful heat to be endured by a human being engaged in a kind of labor calling for severe muscular exertion. Here, also we find the water to have decreased till there is at the present time a very insignificant amount, it being necessary to run the pump but four hours out of the twenty-four.

This tends to corroborate the theory of some geologist that the interior of the earth is a molten mass.

AMERICAN GIRLS.

The paleness in the American girls, though often beautiful, is too universal; an eye from the old country begins to long for a rosy cheek. Lowell said that color was a thing of climate, and that I should find plenty of rosy cheeks amongst the mountains of Maine, where there is more moisture in the air. It may be so: I never got to the Maine mountains to see. But as far as my observation went, I never saw any either on mountain or valley in any part of New England. My private impression is, making all allowance for the influence of dry air, that the peculiar paleness of the New England girls connects itself with too much metaphysics, hot bread and pie. I have strong convictions on this subject of pie. Not to speak of mere paleness, I don't see how the Americans can reconcile it with their notions of what is due to the laws of nature, to live to the age they do, considering the amount of pie they eat. I don't remember that I ever sat down to a dinner in America, even in a poor man's house, without finding pie of some kind—often of several kinds—on the table, and without finding that everybody partook of it, down to the microscopic lady or gentleman whom we shall call the baby. Pie is indispensable. Take anything away, but leave pie. Americans can stand the prohibition of all intoxicating drinks; but attempt to prohibit pie, and you would plunge America into revolution in a day.

Then metaphysics! In one family which I visited in the Connecticut Valley, two of the girls were deep in the study of Algebra and Metaphysics, as a voluntary exercise, and shut themselves up for three hours a day with Colenso, Sir William Hamilton, and Kent. This was, perhaps, exceptional, but the New England brain is very busy. It develops very soon and very fast, and begins at a very early age to exercise itself with the abstruser studies. Parents and teachers frequently told me that their difficulty, with the girls especially, was not to get them urged on, but to get them held back. In one young ladies' seminary which I visited, they were held back with the following light studies, in addition to all the ordinary branches; Virgil and Horace, Latin prose composition, Anatomy and Hygiene, Moral Philosophy, Mental Philosophy and Quadratic Equations. To this add pie and hot bread, and what could you expect but paleness, even among the mountains of Maine!

Paleness and pie notwithstanding, the American girls are very delightful. And in one point they fairly surpass the majority of English girls—they are all educated and well informed. It is a painful, but I fear a too incontrovertible fact that most of the girls on this side are very ignorant on general subjects. I don't blame them; I blame the system of education. Some girls are fascinating whether they are educated or not, but to be left alone as one sometimes is, with a girl who knows nothing, in a room with no piano, is exceedingly embarassing—after the weather has been exhausted. There is never the same difficulty with American girls. The admirable educational system of New England, covering the whole area of society, has given them education, whether they be poor or rich; has furished them with a great deal of general information, and has quickened their desire for more. An American girl will talk to you about anything, and feel (or what has the same effect, seem to feel) interest in it. Their tendency is perhaps to talk too much, and to talk beyond their knowledge. With the cleverer (or as they would say themselves, the "smarter") of them, it seemed to me sometimes to make no perceptible difference whether they know anything of the object they talked about or not.

Mentioning this feature of American character to a Boston gentleman, he said: "It is true, I was struck in England with the silence of the people when they had nothing to say. One time, traveling in the same carriage with a nobleman, I asked him his opinion of the ballot. He replied, "have not considered that subject yet." "You might travel all over America," said my friend, "and never hear a man say that." But the American girls generally know a little of everything, and their general intelligence and vivacity make them very delightful companions.

I had an idea before going out that the New England ladies spent time over intellectual pursuits to the neglect of household duties. I did not find it so. Comparing class with class, they are quite as good housekeepers as I have seen anywhere. They had need be, for service at present is in a very wretched condition in America—so much so that middle-class families in the country often dispense with servants altogether. The young ladies can make bread as well as demonstrate proposition, and their mental philosophy; whatever it amounts to, never interferes with the perfection of the pies Samuel Johnson used to say that a man would rather that his wife should be able to cook a good dinner than read Greek. But he does not seem to have anticipated a time when a woman could learn to do both.—From Daniel Macrae's Notes on America.

SPOONS! O, SPOONS!

It seems the great spoon-fancier is not forgotten, bat (as Artemus Ward would have said) "on the contrary far otherwise." An exchange says:—"From all sections of the country—from Maine to Alaska, from the North, the South, the East, and the West—worthless old spoons have been sent to the "Beast," by express and by mail. Spoons of wood, bone, horn, pewter, tin, iron, and brass pour in upon him at all hours. The plague of spoons is becoming more unendurable to Butler than a plague of frogs. Baskets of spoons are brought to him from the postoffice, and the express carts are constantly delivering them at his door. The suggestion is made that these offerings be kept up."

The Bedford Gazette.

Friday Morning, November 20, 1868.

PREPARE!

The rank-and-file of the Radical party can now make up their minds to meet the issue of Negro Suffrage in a shape that is without disguise. It is authoritatively announced that William D. Kelley, member of Congress from Philadelphia, will at the next session of Congress, bring to a vote his measure to enforce Negro Suffrage throughout the Union. This is exactly what was predicted by us Democrats during the recent campaign. We call to witness every man, "Republican" or Democrat, who listened to the editor of this paper when on the stump, prior to the late election. Did we not tell you that if Grant would be elected, such would be the case? And what was your answer? "Oh no! we can't believe it. But if it should turn out as you say, we will certainly vote with the Democrats!"

Now, mark our words, our prediction will be fulfilled, is now in process of fulfilment.

A Convention of Negroes was held at Harrisburg, on Friday last, which was addressed by Morrow B. Lowry, State Senator from the Erie district, one of the most prominent and able men in the Radical organization. He advocated the propriety of at once conferring the right to vote upon every negro in the country. A committee of darkies waited upon Gov. Geary, who assured them of his sympathy with the objects of their convention.—Isaac B. Gara, Gov. Geary's Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, wrote the following letter to the convention, which we copy verbatim from the State Guard of last Saturday:

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA,
OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF COMMONWEALTH,
HARRISBURG, PA., Nov. 13, 1868.

To Merryman Cupit and others, Committee:

GENTLEMEN: Accept my thanks for your kind invitation to visit the Convention of Colored men now in session in the Wesleyan Union Church of Harrisburg. Although I cannot be personally present, yet I shall be with you in spirit, heartily sympathizing, as I do, in your struggles for full recognition as citizens of this State in common with your brethren of other States. Trusting that the day is not far distant when the ballot will be put into the hands of every colored man in Pennsylvania,

I am, yours, very respectfully,
ISAAC B. GARA.

Is any additional evidence needed to prove that it is the purpose of the Radical party to enfranchise the negro throughout the whole country? Are you prepared to endorse this movement, "Republicans" of Bedford county? Are you ready to degrade and debase the franchise by extending the number of ignorant and licentious voters? Is there not already enough corruption, purchased voting, intimidation and fraud in our elections? If you are not, prepare for it as soon as possible! Prepare to resist it, or you will be forced to acquiesce in its accomplishment. The election is over. We have no partizan purpose to subserve, no votes to make for any candidate, by an appeal like this. We only state what we believe to be the God's truth, and only ask you to consider it in a spirit of candor and fairness. We ask you to watch Congress, which will soon again be in session, and see for yourselves, if what we say turns out to be true or false.

HOLDING THEM TO THEIR PROMISE.

A convention of Negroes was held at Harrisburg, the other day, which adopted a series of resolutions demanding the right of suffrage and perfect equality, in civil condition, with the white man. These resolutions were evidently written by some of the white negroes in the Radical party, and the convention was, doubtless, gotten up by the ultra Radical politicians, for the purpose of forcing Negro Suffrage on their party, and through it, upon the country. We are assured in the preamble to the resolutions adopted by this convention, that "the Rebpublican party "have given us additional assurances "from time to time of their determina- "tion, when once they had the power, "to carry out every line of the Declar- "ation of Independence, and make good "every promise made by the party in "the complete elevation and enfran- "chisement of colored men wherever "they may reside within the national "domain."

In view of these "assurances," the resolutions demand that the Radical party shall now confer the right of suffrage upon the blacks in all the States. The "colored brethren" have determined to hold the white Radicals to their promises. We think that, for once in their history, the latter will be true to their pledges. They want the negro as a tool, and will, therefore, try to enfranchise him.

CALIFORNIA.

The telegraph is very mute in regard to the result of the election in the Golden State. The Democrats have elected two of the three Congressmen, and it may turn out, in the end, that Seymour has carried the State. The vote is very close.

BE SOMEBODY.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb driven cattle,
Be a hero in the strife.

If the man recently elected President of the United States chooes to mark out a course for himself, independent of the Republican party, he has the opportunity to do so. We are not aware that he has given any pledges which hold him to an observance of Radical policy, and if he goes into the presidential chair with head and heart devoted to constitutional government and the best interests of his country, however Radical politicians may howl and threaten, he will find himself sustained by a power that all the influences and appliances of that party cannot shake. If the hero of Fort Donelson, Pittsburg Landing and the Wilderness, has the stuff in him, the moral courage and patriotism, to serve his country instead of a party led by graduates in the schools of fanaticism and sectionalism, he has a glorious chance to do so. He is pledged to "no policy." He gave no broad assent to the Chicago Platform. He once declared, long before his nomination, that he did not desire and would not accept the office unless as president of the whole people. Let him recur to those early utterances and conform his conduct to the policy they imply; let him, in his administration of Federal affairs, consult, not the wishes of the politicians and demagogues of the party that elected him, but the substantial interests and constitutional rights of the masses North and South; let him, in short, be a moral "hero in the strife," and he will find himself sustained by the people of the country and win a renown before the glory of which all his military exploits will pale.

LIARS OR FOOLS.

Suppose the country take the Radicals at their word—suppose that they are taken as a truth-telling party, and that they mean what they say—suppose, in short, that when they charterize us as a disloyal party, as the rebel Democracy, as the party in sympathy with rebels and traitors, they speak their deliberate convictions, and desire to be so understood by the American people, what an all-powerful and invincible army of rebels and traitors we would have in our midst!

If Radical editors know the plain meaning of plain words, they are either a pack of graceless liars, or else they judge their readers to be fools.

The recent Presidential election shows that nearly five millions of votes were actually polled. Of these the Democracy cast two and a quarter millions. But in Viginia, Mississippi and Texas elections were not held. Had the people of these three States been permitted to vote, they would have given a majority of at least 150,000. Then take the number disfranchised in the States of Missouri, Tennessee, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Arkansas and Florida, aggregating at least 350,000, and we find that if Radical editors tell the truth, the rebel army will outnumber that of the loyal army by at least a quarter of a million.

THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

The Congress which will date its existence from the inauguration of Gen. Grant, will contain at least ninety Democrats. The present Congress musters but fifty Democrats and Conservatives. This destroys the Radical two thirds in the forty-first Congress. Hence as much villany as possible may be expected to be crowded into the expiring session of the fortieth Congress. Kelly will at once bring up his Negro Suffrage bill, for he dares not trust it to the Congress elected this year. Snap judgment will be the Radical order of the day. Mark it!

THE Radicals of Georgia have held a meeting, at which it was resolved to exclude, if possible, the participation of negroes in politics, they having become fully satisfied from the results of the late election that negro suffrage will not work. Had these scalawags arrived at this conclusion twelve months ago, much of the trouble that now prevails in the South would have been obviated, and that disturbed section would have been in the enjoyment of comparative peace. We have, in this action of the Georgia Radicals, a striking contrast with the proposed action of the Northern Radicals.—Having had a fair opportunity of practically testing impartial suffrage in the South, the "carpet-baggers" are going dead up against it, while in the North the leaders of the party are making it a pet measure.

OREGON.

This State goes for Seymour by 200 majority. Good for Oregon. She is Democratic now and will remain so.

Judge Treat, of the United States District Court at St. Louis, has decided the fact that a man being in the Southern army or disfranchised by a State law, does not disqualify him as a juror.

The population of Siberia is said to be 20,000,000.

PENNSYLVANIA.—COMPLETE ELECTION RETURNS, 1868.

We give below the full official vote of every county in the State. In Philadelphia, the Radical board of canvassers threw out several thousand votes cast for Seymour.

THE ELECTION.

It is now conceded that Seymour and Blair have carried the State of Oregon by a small majority. This renders it certain that Gen. Grant has been elected by military violence and fraud. The Electoral vote, if constituted according to the will of the people, would stand as follows:

FOR SEYMOUR.
New York	33
New Jersey	7
Oregon	3
All the old slave States	116
Total	169
Whole number Electoral votes	317

Of this Seymour and Blair have secured a majority upon a fair and honest vote. Who supposes that North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri and West Virginia are for GRANT? It is safe to say that no one man in five, unobstructed by any outside interference, would vote for him; yet, by military violence and by the sending to the polls, under its auspices, of hordes of illegal negro voters, these States have been declared carried for him. Their votes, together with those of Mississippi, Virginia and Texas, which, by a pure act of military despotism, were not allowed to vote at all, decided the contest. The result of all may be summoned up as follows:

SEYMOUR was elected by the legal electors and white people of the United States.

GRANT was not elected, but by the power of the bayonet, sending several hundred thousand negroes to the polls, and keeping back several hundred thousand whites, he was declared chosen. This is all there is of it.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE Lancaster Intelligencer contains some very judicious observations in regard to the National Democratic Committee, and suggests that the chair of the committee be filled by a more efficient incumbent than the present one. Democrats generally will agree with the Intelligencer. Mr. Aug. Belmont, doubtless, is a very shrewd financial operator in Wall street, and is a faithful agent of the Rothschilds and other foreign bankers, but he is totally out of place as chairman of the Democratic Committee. He is more concerned about his per cents, than about the interests of the Democratic party, or of the country at large. A successful coup among the bulls and the bears of Wall street, is of more consequence to him than a Democratic triumph.—While he is attending to the sales of his stocks and bonds, he has very little of his valuable time to devote to the cause to which he professes allegiance. He has held the position far too long already. He does not possess the confidence of any considerable portion of the Democratic party. At the same time his personal excellence and amiability are freely owned, as well as his orthodoxy.

The number of children who attend school in the United States is about 5,000,000, and the number of female teachers is about 100,000. The pupils use 20,000,000 books, which cost $18,750,000.

England's experiments with so-called improvements in fire-arms have cost her $140,000 during the last five years.

YOU ARE TO PAY THE PRICES.

A New York Mongrel organ, an organ that leads the "conservative" wing of the poverty-creating party, says, in a late editorial, that "the sum of $25,000 per year is too small to support the President in proper style; it should be at least $100,000 to meet the necessary expenditures as Chief Executive of the nation. President Grant should not be compelled to live in the cheap boarding house style." How do you like this talk, tax-payer? This is the idea of the New York Times. This is a specimen of "Republicanism," the plain, unpretending simplicity which, we have all been told, was the strength of all good governments, and which the leaders of the great reform party pretended that they desired to restore. The sum of $25,000 per year is only sufficient to enable the newly elected to live in cheap boarding house style. In other words, the style in which Mr. Johnson now lives, the style which the "late lamented" enjoyed, is not good enough for General Grant, and the now groaning tax-payers must prepare to sweat out bigger drops of blood, that the new idol shall roll in the luxury of a pampered monarchist. Go ahead with your "reforms" gentlemen; not only give your new idol the $100,000 per year, but move to give it to him for life, and move also to keep him in office during that life. Do not bother your white slaves, who are to pay the price of all this in bigger taxation, with any more election farces. Set up at once a permanent despotism, increase your army, and then apply the screws to the thirty millions of white population, and see how much they will stand.—Day-Book.

WEST VIRGINIA DESPOTISM.

[From the Greenbrier Independent.]

We have been surprised more than once at the want of information abroad, even in the adjoining States, concerning West Virginia despotism.

It is a fact of easy demonstration, that even the Southern States, ruled as they are by the sword, are more free to-day than the always loyal State of West Virginia.

In this State there are not less than twenty-five thousand disfranchised citizens. No, not "citizens!" for the amended constitution of the State declares that they can never become citizens; although they were born on her soil, have lived here all their lives, and are heavily taxed to support the municipal, State, and national governments. They are aliens on their native soil, as far as the State constitution can make them aliens.

In this county alone there are 1,400 disfranchised men, comprising the wealth, intelligence, public spirit, and moral worth of Greenbrier.

In this town, with a population of 1,200 there are only eight voters; and yet in this county there is not one disloyal man, excepting the Radicals, who are all disloyal. In West Virginia there are not less than 25,000 men who cannot hold any office, sit on a jury, or teach a public school.

In West Virginia there are not less than 25,000 men who cannot obtain judgment on old debts due them, or enforce contracts.

In West Virginia the taxes for county and township purposes are eight times heavier than before the war.

In West Virginia we have five paid officers now for one before the war.

In West Virginia the salaries of county officers are double, and some of them treble, of what they were before the war.

In west Virginia, especially in the border counties, the offices are, with few exceptions, filled by the most ignorant and vicious of the population.

In West Virginia three men in each county, known as the County Board of Registration, are actually licensed, by an act of the Legislature, to enter on record that their fellow-citizens are perjurers!

In West Virginia, the County Boards of Registration have entire control of every office in the State. The Board of Registration of Ohio County can unseat Governor Boreman by merely scratching his name from the list of registered voters. The Board of Registration of Monroe County can unseat Judge Nat. Harrison in the same way. No man can hold office unless he is a voter. No man can be a voter unless he is registered. No man can register, or remain registered, without the consent of the county boards of registration. Scratch Boreman's name or Harrison's name from the registry, and the sceptre of power drops from their nerveless grasp.

Did such a state of things ever before exist in any civilized community? Has as mean, contemptible, sneaking, cowardly, brutal a despotism as that of West Virginia ever before rejoiced the hearts of devils, or called for the avenging bolts of heaven?

"Mountaineers always free!" Oh, what a mockery of a noble sentiment! What a brazen-faced lie! There is no freedom in these mountains, except the freedom of ignorance and villany to lord it over intelligence and honesty.

WANT OF TOLERATION.—Gen. Butler, in his late speech at Lowell, in acknowledgment of the greetings of his fellow-citizens, after dealing in the most truculent menaces to the South, wound up by saying: "If the Republican party is true to the great Democratic principles of Jefferson and others, it will hold the government for a generation to come." In the inaugural address of Mr. Jefferson, at his first term of office, is this passage: "If there be any among us who would wish to dissolve this Union, or to change its republican form, let them stand, undisturbed, as monuments of the safety with which error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it." If the Republican party proposes to act on the "Democratic principles of Jefferson," it will exercise at least as much toleration towards those whose only offense is voting for the Democratic ticket as he proposed towards those whose aims were against the Union and a republican form of government—which no one charges against the South in the late canvass.—Baltimore Sun.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for December, is already on our table. It is a splendid number, with two steel engravings, a mammoth fashion plate, a colored pattern in Berlin work, and nearly fifty wood cuts. The principal steel engraving, "The Orphan's Christmas Eve," will touch every heart. We do not wonder at the immense circulation of "Peterson,"—said to be the largest in the world—for it really gives more for the money than any other. Every body ought to subscribe for it. Its stories are the best published anywhere. In 1869, in addition to its usual quantity of short stories, four original copyright novelets will be given. The mammoth colored fashions in this Magazine are the latest and prettiest. About a thousand pages of reading matter will be given in 1869, when the Magazine will be greatly improved. The terms will however remain two dollars a year to single subscribers. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz: four copies for $6.00, with a large engraving, (24 inches by 16.) "The Star of Bethlehem," as a premium to the person getting up a club; or eight copies for $12.00 with both an extra copy of the Magazine and a "Star of Bethleham," as premiums. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1869. Specimens of the Magazine sent gratis. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

HOLIDAY NUMBER.—GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for December, 1868, has been received. This fine old standard periodical is the best, in point of literary material and beautiful illustrations, that we have ever seen. The fashion-plates are not only very elegant designs, but unusually fine specimens of art and colloring. A chief excellence and attraction of the Lady's Book consists of the morality inculcated by its reading matter. No sentence is ever found in its pages that would bring a blush to the cheeks of the sex for whom it is especially intended, and every portion of its variety conveys a lesson of morality that is calculated to teach its readers the beauty of virtue and goodness. Now is the time to make up clubs for 1869. Terms: One copy, one year, $3.00; 2 copies $5.00; 3 copies $7.50; 4 copies, $10,00; 8 copies and an extra copy to to the person getting up the club, making nine copies, $21.00. Address L. A. Godey, N. E., Corner Sixth and Chestnut sts, Philadelphia.

"DEMOREST'S MONTHLY."—The Christmas number of this admirably conducted magazine is out, and is really a gem. The fashions are profuse, the contents, literary and artistic, of the highest class. There is a beautifully illustrated Household department, music, and each worth the cost of the magazine. We do not see how any lady can afford to be without it. It has moreover, none of the frivolity of the ordinary class of fashion magazines, but much of the high tone, and sensible, practical character of the best European Monthlies. Subscribe for it. $3 per year, with a premium. Published at 473 Bradway N. Y.

THE MUSICAL WORLD for November comes to us overflowing with beautiful and attractive new music. "Kate O'Shane," an exquisite new song and chorus by J. R. Thomas; Belle Mahone's Reply, "At the Gate I wait for Thee," song and chorus, and "Woodland Echoes," a fine pianoforte piece by A. P. Wyman, are among the musical contents of the present number, which would cost in sheet form $1.30. Besides this choice music, a large amount of interesting reading is given: "Music Making," "The Honest Little Musician," "Musical Hints," News, Gossip, Correspondence, &c., are contained in this number. All persons subscribing this month will receive the November and December numbers of this year free, being fourteen numbers for one dollar. Beautiful premiums are offered for clubs. Terms only $1 per aanum. Send ten cents for specimen copies. Address the publishers, S. BRAINARD & SONS, Cleveland, O.

WE know of no musical instrument for which there is a greater demand than for the American Organ, manufactured by S. D. & H. W. Smith, at Boston, Mass., the reputation of which is based upon its solid merit. The internal construction differs from all other instruments, being on a superior principle, while the absence of complication renders it less liable to get out of order. The action is so delicate, that its response to the touch is as ready as the Pianoforte, making it desirable for light and quick music as well as for that which is connected and sustained. We trust our readers will take early opportunity to become acquainted with these fine instruments, as no home is complete without a musical instrument.—Boston Traveller.

CAN it be possible that over Five Million Bottles of Plantation Bitters have been sold during the past year? It is almost incredable, nevertheless it is absolutely true, and is the most convincing proof of their wonderful medicinal and health-restoring qualities. Every family should be supplied with these Bitters, at whatever cost or trouble it may be to obtain them. Be careful that you get the genuine, and that you are not imposed upon by a spurious article.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

WHEN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS MEET.—The electors chosen in each State meet at the capitol of their respective States on the first Wednesday in December. The Senate and House, having fixed a day for a joint convention, will assemble together in the House. Mr. Wade will open the certificates, count the votes and announce that Ulysses S. Grant is elected President and Schuyler Colfax Vice President of the United States.

COURT.—The several courts of this county are in session this week. The weather is very disagreable and the attendance slim. Proceedings next week.

THE FASHIONS.—We publish from the N. Y. Democrat the following article on the fashions, it will prove interesting to our lady readers:

The greatest and most singular revolution to be chronicled in the fall fashions is the down fall of crinoline.—Hoops were discarded in Paris some months since and are rapidly being abandoned by New York fashionables. Fifth avenue knows them no longer forever, and Broadway each day sees less of them. The ladies have however substituted a gored under-skirt, made of hair cloth, or the old-fashioned corded muslin, so much in vogue some years since.

The skirts of long dresses have altered but little since last season. They are still worn gored very much in front and upon the sides, but are made very full in the back, and the train is of more moderate dimensions. All long dresses are made with a pannier, which is a necessary adjunct to every toilet, the pannier puff being the favorite style for long dresses.

There have been many new materials imported for suits, the most expensive being figured velvet—an elegant fabric, not unlike gentlemen's vestings. Beautiful shades of claret, mulberry, brown, and garnet cloths have also been imported. Among the latest novelties is an overdress of black gross-grain silk, with a velvet petticoat striped with black and gold, or black and crimson, though this material can be obtained in all shades. Plaid suits seem to be gaining in favor, being made always of the blue and green tartan. They are especially appropriate for very young ladies, and are made and trimmed in various ways. As toilets are always made in suits, there is but little to be said about cloaks. Velvet will, as always, hold its place as the favorite and most elegant mantle; Plush jackets are still worn and can be obtained in lovely shades of blue, garnet and French gray. They are short and jaunty. When made with pointed hoods and trimmed with with tassels they are particularly pretty. Cloth cloaks are cut as pelisses, or as basques with capes or hood. In black they are especially convenient, as they can be worn with a skirt of any color. Circulars made of bright-colored plaids have been exceedingly popular during the fall, and are so universally admired that they will doubtless continue to be used as neglige wraps during the winter.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS' DUTIES.—The last number of the Pennsylvania School Journal, has the following sensible article on the importance of school directors visiting schools:

"The duty of visiting the schools is considered one of the most important duties that directors have to discharge in the administration of the system. The law makes the duty imperative, and no person should accept the office of school director unless he is willing to perform it. When well done, its effect is always to make the schools more efficient. It stimulates pupils in their studies. It enables directors to ascertain the exact condition of the schools, school-houses and school-grounds. On the whole, so high a value does the Department set upon the local supervision of the schools that it always expects to find the school of districts which are regularly and systematically visited by Boards of Directors according to the provisions of law, other things equal, fifty per cent. better than those of districts in which the schools are entirely neglected in this respect and this estimate is made from personal observation in hundreds of districts."

BUSINESS.—Bright, clear, and beautiful weather—just bracing enough to make a man feel good, and in the humor for pushing business. The best way to get the purchasing portion of the community in the humor for buying is to advertise, and one of the best mediums for advertising is the BEDFORD GAZETTE, which goes everywhere and is read by everybody. Send in your advertisements, business men, if you would prosper. Keep yourselves before the public, as the politicians do. Let everybody know who you are, where you are, and what you are doing. Attention to these matters rarely fails to achieve fortune.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Governor Geary has designated next Thursday, the 26th of November, to be observed by the people of Pennsylvania as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God in acknowledgement of the many blessings vouchsafed during the past year. The same day has been appointed for the same purpose by most of the Governors of the other States. The President of the United States, it will be remembered, issued his proclamation some weeks ago, recommending the 26th instant as a day of thanksgiving and praise throughout the country, and as the Governors of the several States are designating the same day, it will be a national holiday.

CEMETERY.—On Tuesday evening next, Nov. 24, there will be a meeting of the friends of the Cemetery Association, at the Court House, at 7 o'clock. The ladies of the town are especially invited to attend. The object is to make preparatory arrangements to the holding of a festival. A. KING, Pres.
H. NICODEMUS, Sec'y.

PASSED THROUGH.—A large lot of tools, carts, picks and other implements used to prepare the way for the iron horse whose shrill neigh will before many days be heard in the south western portion of our county, passed through town the other day, for the line of the Pittsburg & Connellsville Rail Road. We understand that a large force of laborers will be put on the road at once and the work pushed to completion at the earliest possible day.

THOSE wishing to buy real estate, should attend the sale, in St. Clair tp., on Saturday, December 12, 1868, advertised by J. W. Dickerson, Esq., in this issue. This property is one of the most desirable and valuable in that part of the county. The water right extending clear across the farm to the Alstadt line, cannot be excelled and is daily becoming more valuable. The farm needs only to be well tilled to become one of the most productive in the county.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On the 29th of October last, Mr. Henry Cable, of Shade township, Somerset county, rode to Shanksville, a distance of ten miles, to procure some medicine for heart disease, (to which he was subject,) and immediately after mounting his horse to return home, he began to sink forward, fell from his horse and expired in five minutes. He was in the 61st year of his age.

WINTER SEASON.—The Winter Season is now approaching, when warm rooms, warm beds and warm clothing will be called for. Cold noses, fingers and toes will soon become quite a common complaint, and means must be sought to guard against such inconvenience. Comforters, gloves, furs and other contrivances will be brought into requisition, while the hands of many a stout fellow will find comfortable quarters in his breeches pockets. Meanwhile it is to be greatly feared that colds, catarrhs and numberless ills will be induced by neglecting to have the fall properly cared for. Stout boots and shoes, gum and other overshoes, cork soles and other inventions for keeping the feet warm and dry, are offered for sale at various places.

TRANSPLANTING TREES.—This is the best season of the year for transplanting fruit or shade trees of all kinds. Any time in the Fall before the ground freezes deeply will do. Persons having unoccupied land, yards, lanes, &c., should plant them with trees. The result will amply pay the cost of labor, and yield a thousand per cent. in satisfaction, comfort and beauty. Our farmers' fields are too bare of fruit trees. There should be sufficient to furnish cattle with a shade during the heat of the day under a summer sun. There is land enough that might be well occupied for this purpose.

THE POOR.—As cold weather sets in there will be more or less distress all around us, and it would be well to begin in time to do something in the way of providing for those who are compelled to suffer want. "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord," was the text of Lorenzo Dow, and the application of the sermon was—"if you like the security, down with the stamps."

Philadelphia, March 10th, 1868.

JACOB SCHEETZ, ESQ.—My Dear Sir: Some eight months ago, when suffering from great nervous prostration, the result of exposure and overtasked energies, I was induced by you (an old friend) to take as a tonic your celebrated Bitter Cordial; and so agreeably surprising have been its beneficial effects, that I cannot refrain from thus bearing testimony in its favor. As a beverage, it is as pleasant and delightful as a glass of rich dark brown sherry; as an appetizer before meals, perfectly magical; and as a digester of food, the most potent compound I ever knew. Altogether, I consider it one of the happiest combinations of medicinal herbs ever offered to the public as a curative. I most cheerfully and confidently recommend it to every sufferer from Debility, Dyspepsia and Rheumatism. As a substitute for the villainous alcoholic and vinous concoctions imbibed at too many of the public bars of the present day, it must also prove a blessing.

Very truly yours,
Alex. W. Blackburn, Fire Marshall.

BORDER DAMAGES.—Franklin county has put in 1,504 claims, Fulton 127, Perry 5, Bedford 47, and Cumberland 132.—Adams will probably have 1,000, and York several hundred. The claims in the aggregate will reach from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000.

ST. LOUIS and IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY'S Seven per cent. first Mortgage Bonds, February and August Coupons. The earnings of the completed road to Pilot Knob are now more than the interest on the entire mortgage. The proceeds of these bonds are adding to the security every day. Over $8,000,000 have been spent on the property, and not over $2,000,000 of bonds issued thus far. The constantly increasing traffic of carrying ore, with the power of controlling all the travel from St. Louis to the Southern States, insures an enormous revenue. The Directors own $13 of the stock for investment, and are interested to enrich the property as well as to economize its expenses.

THOS. ALLEN, President, St. Louis, Mo.

We, the undersigned, cordially recommend these seven per cent. mortgage bonds, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, as a good security. The revenue of the road will be large, and the administration of the affairs of the Company is in capable and experienced hands, and is entitled to the greatest confidence of the public.

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it promotes the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver; or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling to districts where miasmatic maladies will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.
